Above & Beyond

Recognizing students who exceed expectations & take on leadership roles during groups.

Laylani Bailey-Thomas

Laylani always shows up to class and participates. She also helps remind the others to pay attention and keeps them in check.

Zurie Bjornberg

Zurie goes above and beyond by participating in many of our family events. She's been in the archery league since 5th grade! She's always excited to do projects and go on field trips.

Jocelyn Brenden Bruhjell

Jocelyn volunteered to help at extravaganza night at the middle school. She helped share her knowledge of the Ojibwe and Dakota people by engaging with students, parents, and staff who played trivia. She continues to show up for groups, events, and assist when needed. Jocelyn joined our beading circle at CRMS and is always excited to learn more about her heritage. She is a great student to have in and out of group.

Seth Dean

Seth continuously involves himself in the program by showing up to events and lending a helping hand. Seth was able to help clean up after the powwow this trimester. He attends group frequently and is always looking for ways to help and get involved. Seth always volunteers to do any announcements for the school when it comes to Indian ed. Seth will stop into my office and talk with younger students to hopefully get them involved more. He encourages them to go to the language table and learn their language. He encourages other students to participate in the multicultural show and represent our communities. He is a great student and advocate.

Piper Dickey

Piper is always excited for American Indian Ed! She asks great questions and is always willing to learn. Piper has also branched out by coming to family events recently.

Emerson Gulyard

Emerson is always willing to help with anything during our Indian Ed groups.

Haidyn Hicks

Hayden always comes to groups and is ready to participate. She also has attended our drum and dance showing interest in our after school activities.

Cora Johnson

Cora always contributes to group lessons and offers insights into what she knows or has heard about our culture.

Vera Schannaver

Vera is always happy to come to class and reminds the others to not run in the hallway and gives reasons as to why it can be bad to do so.

Delia Walter

Delia is always ready to participate in group and during field trips. She has thoughtful questions and is a great example to other students.

Colt Zeis

Colt is always excited and ready for group! He is a great example to his peers, and he goes above and beyond by participating in family events and field trip.

Community Advocate

Recognizing students who have volunteered in their community this trimester.

Harmony Fletcher

Harmony has been driven to be a helper in the community. She loves to volunteer and help with younger kids everywhere she goes whether it is in the neighborhood or at events. She volunteers at Feed My Starving Children often. She is always finding unused items in good condition to donate to those in need.

Hope Fletcher

Hope is always volunteering for cultural activities. Hope volunteered on the most recent elementary field trip for AIE as well as Culture Night at one of our schools. Hope also volunteers at the PowWow every year and has been learning drum and dance as well as Ojibwe every week. Hope has volunteered to help make ribbon shirts and skirts for our seniors.

Owen Narr

Owen has been an important part of his community volunteering his time to two awesome organizations. First, Owen volunteered with a hockey mentorship program. In this program he followed closely with a younger skater throughout the season. Owen volunteered packing meals for the needy, attended his skaters games and a few practices, and he supported him in his growth with passing. Secondly, Owen volunteered with the Anoka Youth Hockey program attending Ice is Nice. This program mentors young skaters as they learn the basics of skating and the game of hockey.

Cultural Leadership

Harmony Fletcher

Harmony has taken a great interest in learning and participating in cultural activities. Harmony has been learning Ojibwe each week. She has also taken an interest in learning to fancy shawl dance. She volunteered to dance at the JMS multicultural show. She is always sharing our culture with new folks.

Landon Goodwin

Nominated for Grass dancing.

Ashlyn Goodwin

Nominated for Women's Traditional dancing.

Catori Hanson

Nominated for Jingle Dress dancing.
