How does iTime work?

1. Check for iTime emails from your teachers on Wednesday afternoon.

One of your teachers may assign you to their classroom during iTime for one of the following reasons:

- To reteach previously taught concepts.
- To personalize instruction to meet your learning style.
- To participate in small group activities.

If you are assigned to a classroom you have been “Pinged” and must show up.

Teachers & support staff may also invite you to attend seminars during iTime which you may:

- Review concepts prior to a test.
- Review assessments.
- Participate in a study session.
- Learn about college & career readiness.

These seminars are optional.

2. Know your iTime options

If you are not assigned to meet with a teacher, it means you have not been "Pinged" and you are free to use your time in any of the following ways:

- Stay with your current first hour teacher or connect with a current teacher to ask questions or make up missing work, quizzes, or tests.
- Participate in a teacher or student led seminar that you were invited to attend (the invite would show up in your email).
- Work on a group project.
- Complete a lab.
- Do homework or study for a test.

Student Guidelines & Expectations

- Know that your teachers who have asked you to come to their classroom will be taking attendance.
- Know that iTime should be used for academic work.
- Students should go directly to their iTime destination upon being dismissed by their 2nd hour teacher.
- Demonstrate respect for yourself and others
- Engage in ethical decision making.
- Take personal responsibility for your academic success.
